Rules for all Parents and Participants

- Supervise your children during the game and keep them in the bleachers. If you are playing, have another adult guardian watch over them. Keep children off the scaffolding, out from under the bleachers and if your child is outside, you are responsible for their safety and welfare.
- Any child that is caught breaking or vandalizing any school property will identify him/her and both parents' team will be immediately disqualified.
- Any parent caught bringing in alcohol or drinking alcohol in the gym will be asked to leave and the team he/she represents will be disqualified from the tournament.
- Please clean up after yourself and the family. Let's keep our school grounds picked up and set a good example for our children.
- All parents will follow the rules of the respective sport and show appropriate conduct including good sportsmanship throughout the tournament
